

really saying "I love you" to God, because that is where God lives. God lives in your heart.